

NJCOMO General Meeting

January 11, 2019

Innovations and Outcomes Subcommittee Minutes

Present: Nowai Keleekai-Brapoh (Overlook); Kathy Faber (St. Joseph’s); Paul Quinn (Valley); Vera Kunte (Capital Health); Veronica McEvoy (Atlanticare); Joanne Muoio (University Hospital); Danilo Bolima (University Hospital); Nancy Powell (Atlanticare); Wendy Silverstein, MPD (Morristown)

Item	Discussion	Resolution	Responsible Party
Update charter All	Reviewed 2018 charter with some additions made to include 2018 achievements for 2019 charter. Removed individual hospital listing. Added 2019 goals as noted below.	Final charter to be sent to NJCOMO president/vice-president	N. Keleekai-Brapoh K. Faber
2019 Goals All	Goals will focus on developing resources for website: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Magnet® NK & I tip sheet • Update research and EBP table • Include subcommittee members’ contact • Offer “Escape Room” activity focusing on innovation at NJCOMO Education Day in the fall 	Updated charter and goals	N. Keleekai-Brapoh K. Faber
NNREBP Consortium Resiliency Study update K. Faber	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kathy Burke out of country during meeting. • Kathy Faber updated group on study status. • Study will employ use of a resiliency toolkit and survey for new graduates. • Study design is being drafted by master’s student at Ramapo College with plan for enrollment to begin in September 2019. 	All NJCOMO member hospitals will be invited to participate.	K. Burke N. Keleekai-Brapoh K. Faber
Open forum All	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Update to 2019 Magnet® manual: need 2 completed IRB research studies and 1 ongoing. • Various Research Council approaches discussed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Benefit of engaging interprofessional partners on council to stimulate ideas. ○ Smaller organizations consider having a non-RN chair. 	Informational	None

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• UMDNJ has an Innovation council• Atlanticare has an Innovation Contest during Nurses week that challenges nurses to move their improvement ideas from “What If into How To”
--	--	--	--

Respectfully submitted,

Nowai Keleekai-Brapoh, PhD, RN-BC